

Enchanted Circle Association of REALTORS® (ECAR) MLS Tour Zones Map

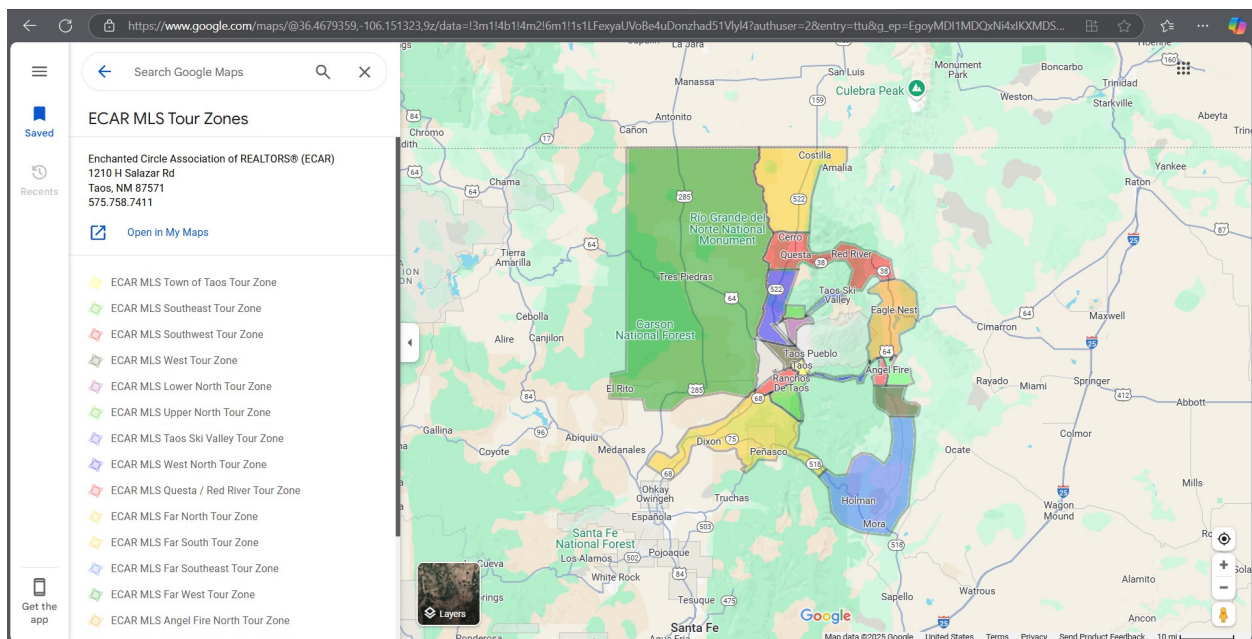

The MLS Tour Zones Map for the Enchanted Circle Association of REALTORS® (ECAR) has been developed and is located on Google maps. The map is interactive, and provides the user with the ability to view in normal map mode, as well as any other feature offered by Google maps. The user may zoom in for a micro view or zoom out for a broad view. The user may also use the street level view on main streets or highways where Google has made street views available.

Click on the following link, or anywhere on the map below to access the interactive Google map:

Once you have pulled up the interactive Google map, you may click on any shaded area of the map to see that Tour Zone and its approximate boundaries. You may use all the features of a Google map, including zooming in, zooming out, panning in any direction, switching to the Satellite view, the Terrain view, the Traffic view, or the Street Level view, if Google has developed these features for the area of the map you are viewing.

Disclaimer: The tour zones in this map have been developed for members of the Enchanted Circle Association of REALTORS® (ECAR) and are based on property locations and the general access to those properties. These tour zones are strictly for use by ECAR members, and may have no relation to similarly named neighborhood associations or areas as defined by local governmental agencies.
